

Safeguarding Parent & Child Friendly Version

Safeguarding is our No.1 Priority

Wild Embers are fully committed to safeguarding the welfare of all vulnerable adults, children and young people by taking all reasonable steps to protect them from harm.

What is Safeguarding?

Safeguarding means protecting a person's health, well-being and human rights; enabling them to live free from harm, abuse and neglect.

What Should I do if suspect a child is at risk of harm or neglect?

Please tell a member of Wild Embers staff, our Safeguarding Lead is Richard Scofield, and our deputy Safeguarding Lead is Alex Gostwick

Contact Richard at: Richard@wildembers.org / 07906 529 371

Contact Alex at: info@wildembers.org / 07534 013 725

If you suspect the child is at immediate risk of danger, please call 999 immediately

Where can I find out more about Safeguarding?

Wild Embers Safeguarding Policy can be found on our website, but feel free to ask a member of staff for more information, however big or small

All safeguarding matters will be dealt with confidentially, professionally and in conjunction with local authorities and safeguarding teams where necessary
